“Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, ‘Come here at once and take your place at the table?’ Would you not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink?’ Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? ”

October 13th ~ Grow in Community Luke 17: 11-19 , Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

“And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

October 20th ~ Serve Alongside Community Luke 18:1-8, Jeremiah 31: 27-33

“ And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

October 27th ~ Our Commitment to Live Into the Fullness of Community Luke 18: 9-14 , Joel 2: 23-32

“But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The pastors are in full communication about the sermons and scripture so we can plan a lesson for your child that will be familiar to you after worship. We are hoping that this will lead to more meaningful conversations in your family.

Let us know how we are doing! We are looking for feedback on your children's lessons, your family conversations, and what you think of the change. Feel free to e-mail your thoughts to Katie, and keep your eye on your email for a survey soon.

Do you have questions, concerns, or ideas about the Children's Ministries at Saratoga Springs UMC? Are you itching to volunteer with some kiddos? Are you curious about Small Wonders Christian Preschool? Call or e-mail anytime!

TWO SIDES

TO EVERY STORY:

Pastor Heather's Story:

The Fullness of Community — For me these words bring me back quickly to a day 20 years ago. My family and I began our journey into ministry by moving into a farmhouse in Penfield, NY. Together we embarked on this path and left the support of family and friends. It was only a few weeks into our move that I knew we needed community, family, a church home, so we began worshipping at Penfield United Methodist Church. After a couple of months attending the church the pastor, Jeff, asked if he could come for a visit. I got the house clean and ready and one fall afternoon a gift of great generosity would care for each of us. As the pastor began to talk he expressed how concerned the new congregation that we had just met was, that our family have access to health care. Since we were both not working we were trying to secure coverage. After conversations with the church leaders, they decided to pay for our year of health care coverage. Moved to tears, and in no position to refuse the graciousness of this gift, we expressed our deep gratitude. This is what I have always known church to be, the fullness of community, the family of faith. So many moments over my lifetime the church was there to pick up the end of the burdens others would carry. This bridge between layperson in the pews and clergy in leadership, empowered my call to encourage relationships that foster a God centered family. We are all blessed in different and life giving ways. When we share our blessing with each other glimpses of God's kingdom make its way into our lives, community, and world. The fullness of community happens when we, as a God centered family, remember how we are individually blessed and how the collective blessing comes to life—in our living, our loving, and in our sharing—whatever our blessing may be!

Pastor Ralph's Story:

Have you walked into a car dealer, furniture store, or a high intensity gym and felt the stare of the hunter? Known the feeling of being chased stalked taken sold?

I loved my job as a fitness trainer. I hated the job of getting the next sale. I thought, this competition will be cutthroat. Nine highly trained, powerfully skilled, people wanting to be first. Instead I found a community of caring affirming cooperation.

Our sales and training community was built on the strengths and needs of people. We believed there is enough for all. If a trainer has skills better suited to a client, I step aside. Trainers bragged about the skills of the other trainers.

Once a rogue arrogant trainer tried to take over: talked bad about teammates, shamelessly self-promoted, falsely claimed competencies, took others' equipment, ... the poor attitude pulsed through the the staff like a virus. Everyone was out of balance. Clients were uncomfortable and failed to reach goals. He realized that selfishness didn't work.

Colleagues who could have taken from me; added to my success and I to theirs. Young athletes, I referred to the eager coach. Body builders, to the awarded competitor. Those who are physically challenged, recovering from surgeries, coworkers sent to me. One man who survived a stroke came using a walker, presented his withered hand to me and proceeded for the next three years to exercise harder than any client I'd seen in 12.

All the trainers from the hockey star to the Olympic swimmer: encouraged and congratulated this man as the champion he is. He benefited from not only me, but from nine. More than I could do alone; we built a community of health, and success.

Mission Minute

Fifteen members of SSUMC participated in this summer's annual mission trip to The United Methodist Economic Ministry (UMEM) in Salem, Maine. Long-held relationships with the staff of UMEM and residents of the surrounding area were renewed and strengthened during the week.

The region served by UMEM is one of the most economically disadvantaged areas of the state of Maine and the needs for food, clothing and shelter are great. UMEM operates a food pantry, thrift shop and arranges for housing repairs for local residents.

The team from SSUMC worked on two major projects this year. Half of the group spent the week filling backpacks with sneakers, socks and school supplies for students returning to school at every grade level. The other half of the team replaced skirting around a mobile home for a disabled woman who spent part of last winter with frozen water lines.

It was only through the very generous donations from members of the SSUMC congregation that both projects were able to be successfully completed. 140 backpacks were distributed to families in the community and the majority of the sneakers and numerous items on the school supply list were purchased using SSUMC donations. The trailer skirting project cost well over $900, and since the UMEM line of credit at the nearest lumber yard would not have come close to covering the cost, it was possible to still make the purchase with SSUMC donated funds.

It is not just the people of Maine who are the beneficiaries of our efforts each year. A little boy really, really wanted a Paw Patrol backpack. Our team was able to find him one and imagine the look on his face when he received it. When Pastor Heather and Laura LeCours learned that the birthday of the woman in the mobile home would occur while we were there, imagine the look on her face when they presented her with a birthday cake. Or imagine the reaction of the UMEM staff when Will Chamberlin donated his pick-up truck to the ministry. These are the kind of rewards that our group receives each and every year that we visit the ministry.

It cannot be over-emphasized that it is only through the support of the SSUMC congregation, both financially and in spirit, that our relationship with the people associated with UMEM continues to flourish. And for that, we thank you so very much.

Music Notes

Frobenius Concert

We'll have two classically trained musicians, both with broad musical interests and a variety of work in many of New York City's musical circles. Michael Hey (organ) and Christiana Liberis (violin) embarked on a partnership to bring a new and fresh approach to the organ and violin repertoire and to explore and create vastly different styles and genres of music for these two great and remarkably flexible instruments. The concert will be on Friday, November 15th at 7:30pm.

The Music Box

God calls us as his children to Reach Out to all people with God's love and spirit. Thus members of the Saratoga Springs UMC are united together in special groups to bring their musical gifts to various communities in and around Saratoga Springs. The AcaBella chimes and vocal ensemble is a group of 6 retired teachers who perform at nursing and assisted living homes including Wesley Health Care Center, Woodlawn Commons, Home of the Good Shepherd, The Summit and others. They perform between 8 and 15 concerts each year. Programs include a variety of musical styles and genres, from Broadway to Brahms, folksongs, movie themes, and inspirational numbers. Residents are encouraged to sing along and to try ringing the chimes. They are welcomed by residents and are frequently invited back, and have been voted their favorite entertainment by some residents.

The choirs of Joyful Hope, Canticum Novum, God's Hand Bells, Chancel Bell Ringers, AcaBella, a total of 75 persons, and a very young girl on the violin with her father on the guitar, have collaborated in presenting musical concerts at Embury Apartments for Independent Living by special request of the residents and arranged by a resident, a member of God's Bells. Their concerts take place each Christmas and in the spring. Music includes hymns, spirituals, Christmas carols, and some popular music. The Residents have rejoiced in these programs and relate feeling spiritually uplifted. The members of the music groups welcome with joy these opportunities to share their time and talents, and to make friends with the residents. God's Blessing to all those giving and receiving !
